

TECHNOLOGY USE STANDARDS FOR MOOSONEE PUBLIC SCHOOL STUDENTS

The purpose of the internet is to support research and education by providing access to extensive resources. These Technology Use Standards along with the school's Code of Behavior provide the standards to help students exercise personal discretion and responsible choices. If a student does not follow the direction of his/her teacher, the student's internet privileges may be lost.

Code of Conduct for users of the Network/Internet

Everyone will be treated with common courtesy and respect, therefore:

- I will not use bad language of any type, including swearing, name-calling or threats.
- I will follow the rules of Internet etiquette.
- I will not try to learn or use the passwords of others.
- I will not copy, change or use files belonging to another student.
- I will not knowingly introduce any computer virus.
- I will not download any resources for permanent storage without permission.
- I will not attempt to disrupt the computer network or bypass security.

The Internet can be a dangerous place, therefore:

- I will not share my password with anyone else.
- I will not tell anyone my home address, phone number, or personal information.
- I will not agree to a personal meeting with anyone I encounter online.
- I will not retrieve or send inappropriate information of any type.
- If I accidentally come across anything on the internet that I think is inappropriate, I will tell my teacher.
- I will not use CHAT programs on the Internet.
- I will not use Facebook, My Space (or similar social network websites) on school computers.

Computer programs do not belong to me, therefore:

- I will not make copies of software found on school computers.
- I will not give, lend or sell copies of software to others.

(please print)

Parent or Guardian:

Please sign below and return this page to the school. The terms and conditions outlined on the previous pages should be kept for future reference.

As the parent or guardian of this student, I have read the student version of the Technology Use Standards document and reviewed it with my child. I understand that Internet access is designed for educational purposes. I also recognize it is impossible for the school to restrict access to all controversial materials and I will not hold the school responsible for inappropriate materials acquired by my son/daughter on the internet.

The administration of the school may deny, revoke or suspend specific user access.
